

WHAT ARE YOU IN THE MOOD FOR?

A: Hey, what's happening?

B: Not much but I'm a little hungry. I'm thinking about getting something to eat.

A: What are you in the mood for?

B: Hmm. I don't know. Nothing fancy. I just want something good.

A: We could try Roberta's. They have great beer and the pizza is fantastic.

B: Where is that?

A: It's not far. It's a ten-minute ride from here.

B: Roberta's it is then. Let's go!

- What are you in the mood for tonight?

- What kind of place do you want to go to?

- What do you want to do today?

- Do you have a regular spot for coffee?

- Do you want to see some live music?

- Are you into going to cafe's?

I'm in the mood for some pizza and wings.

I want to go somewhere cheap.

I want to get some coffee and relax.

Yes. I like an Italian place in Yokohama.

Yes. That sounds like a lot of fun.

No, I prefer going outside.

A: Hi. What are you doing?

B: I'm looking for a good band to see tonight.

A: What kind of place do you want to go to?

B: Well, I'm in the mood for some jazz or blues.

A: We could try Samurai. It's a fun little jazz club.
They have good food and a great atmosphere.

B: Where is it?

A: It's in Shinjuku. It's not far.

B: Great. Let's go!
