

+ SYMPTOMS REVIEW +

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 1. 1st degree burn | - a very bad burn with black, dry skin like burned meat. |
| 2. 2nd degree burn | - a cleanly broken bone. |
| 3. 3rd degree burn | - red skin; a sunburn for example. |
| 4. blister | - a purple mark on the skin caused by a strong bump. |
| 5. simple fracture | - a bad burn with red skin and blisters. |
| 6. compound fracture | - a bubble of skin full of water caused by a burn or rubbing. |
| 7. spiral fracture | - a broken bone with bone sticking out of the skin. |
| 8. bruise | - an opening in the skin with blood coming out. |
| 9. scratch | - a very serious, twisting break of a bone. |
| 10. cut | - a very deep cut. |
| 11. laceration | - feeling one wants to throw up or vomit. |
| 12. nausea | - a light cut on the skin, like from a cat's claw. |
| 13. dizziness | - a raised temperature. |
| 14. sprain | - the feeling one has after turning in circles many times. |
| 15. fever | - a twisted joint, like ankle or wrist. |
| 16. diarrhea | - watery, loose stool. |
| 17. constipation | - any time blood is coming out of your body. |
| 18. itchy | - unable to use the bathroom to make stool. |
| 19. bloodshot | - dry, irritated skin, sometimes red. |
| 20. bleeding | - red eyes. |

List the five types of ache below.

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 2. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 4. _____ |
| 5. _____ | |