

CHILDHOOD

A: What were you like as a kid?

B: Well, I was always outdoors. I loved climbing trees and the jungle gym. But I fell a lot too.

A: You must have gotten a lot of bruises.

B: Yeah, all the time. My parents were so worried. But I think lots of kids are like that. What were you like?

A: Actually I always stayed inside. I loved reading comics and playing video games. That's probably why I have glasses now.

B: What was your favorite game?

A: Super Mario Brothers. I must have played it a thousand times.

A: Do you want to have kids someday?

B: I don't know. Maybe. Kids are so noisy and messy.

A: Yeah, sometimes. My little brother was a disaster.

B: Oh yeah?

A: Well I was always kind of quiet. But my brother always made a huge mess.

B: He must have been pretty wild.

A: He was. It's funny because now he's totally different.

B: How so?

A: Well now he works at a tech company. So he's always inside on the computer and kind of a neat freak.
