

Are you ready?

Yes, I am.

Let's go!

A: Can you play guitar?

B: No, I can't. Can you?

A: Yes, I can. I play electric guitar.

B: That's great. How often do you play?

A: I play about five times a week.

B: Do you play in a band?

A: No, I don't. I play at home.

B: What kind of music do you play?

A: I play rock music.

A: Are you going to go out tonight?

B: No, I'm not. Are you?

A: Yes, I am. I'm going to go to an Italian restaurant.

B: Sounds good. Are you going to have pizza?

A: No, I'm not. I'm going to have pasta.

B: Who are you going to have dinner with?

A: I'm going to have dinner with my boss.

B: Is your boss going to pay?

A: Yes, he is.

Yes / No Questions

Yes / No questions are a tricky business in English. Do lots of drills and always listen carefully for your students' answers. Do they match the question? Start drilling!

How to use the worksheet.

1. Elicit an answer or two by asking a few simple Yes / No questions.
2. Drill the simple patterns.
3. Show students how to expand and why.

Do you like skiing?

No.

This just sounds rude!

Do you like skiing?

No, I don't. Do you?

Still not perfect but MUCH better.

4. Have students talk in small groups and start their conversations with a question. (It's up to you to make up some good ones but that's not hard.)

5. Listen and correct.
6. Use the worksheet to reinforce all of what you've done. Use the preset conversations to practice pronunciation.
7. Start up new conversations and talk, talk, talk!
