

Reading Charts

Use the following terms to describe the chart below.

Verbs		Nouns
to dip	to bump up	a dip	a bump
to drop	to rise	a drop	a rise
to fall	to climb	a falling off	a climb
to plunge	to spike	a plunge	a spike
to level off	to flatten out	a leveling off	a flattening out

Fill in the sentences below with the information from the chart above.

- Sales at Company A climbed sharply to 85 thousand units in April.
- Sales at Company B _____ steadily to 50 thousand units in May.
- Company A saw a small _____ in sales in May.
- Sales _____ sharply at Company A from June to August.
- Company B saw a slight _____ in sales in May.
- Company B's sales _____ in October.
- Sales numbers _____ at Company A in the last three months of the year.
- There was a _____ in sales at Company B at the end of the year.

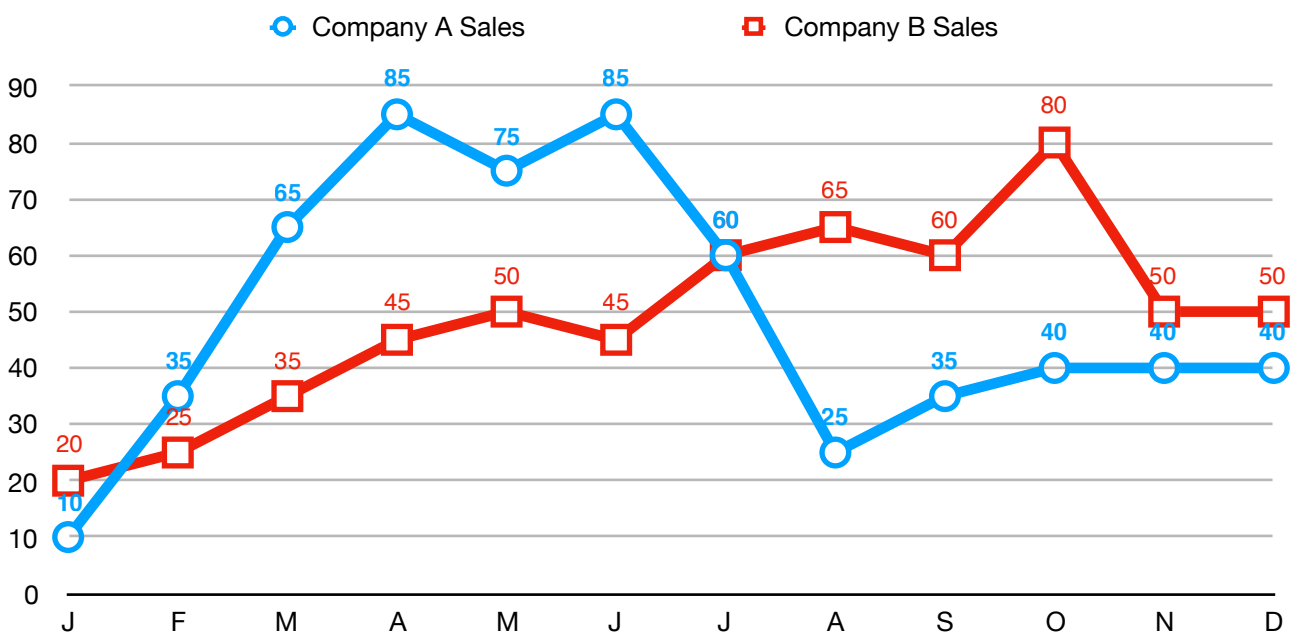

Reading Charts

Use the following terms to describe the chart below.

Verbs		Nouns
to dip	to bump up	a dip	a bump
to drop	to rise	a drop	a rise
to fall	to climb	a falling off	a climb
to plunge	to spike	a plunge	a spike
to level off	to flatten out	a leveling off	a flattening out

Fill in the sentences below with the information from the chart above.

- Sales at Company A climbed sharply to 85 thousand units in April.
- Sales at Company B rose steadily to 50 thousand units in May.
- Company A saw a small dip in sales in May.
- Sales fell / dropped sharply at Company A from June to August.
- Company B saw a slight bump in sales in May.
- Company B's sales spiked in October.
- Sales numbers leveled off at Company A in the last three months of the year.
- There was a leveling off in sales at Company B at the end of the year.